Speak With A Decision Maker Today

Our underwriters are your own extended team. Experts at writing risk, you deal directly with experienced decision makers that have the authority to underwrite.

Why Century?

Finding the right solution is in our DNA. Our team of expert underwriters will utilise their many years of experience to provide you and your client with thoughtful, practical and effective solutions often when the majority of providers may opt not to.

Exclusive Policies

Our underwriters have the authority to tailor exclusive policies for our broker partners, providing added value and the opportunity to win and retain business within a competitive market.

Specialist Claims Handling

We provide complete confidence, with specialist end-to-end claims handling from the UK's largest third-party accident management and claims handling provider, WNS Assistance.

Personal Experience

Working with Century is a one-to-one experience, where our expert commercial underwriters will work directly with you to create a truly tailored and competitive solution for your customers.

Appetite To Write Risk

We understand that not all insurance requirements are alike, which is why our underwriters will work with you and look to find ways to write risk, rather than decline it.
